

Arawa Waterpark invites all of Aruba to enjoy their Party Expo!

In the search for the new and unique when planning a party, many a parent with a birthday child, business executives setting up a Christmas party and friends of prospective brides and grooms have been frustrated by the same old tired choices. The Arawa Waterpark in Moko opened just a few months ago, and they know that aside from offering a fun day splashing in their pool, they can also provide the answer to many people's prayers that are looking for a complete package for their next celebration that is something different.

The management of Arawa Waterpark invites the public for a Party Expo on Thursday, September 21, to discover what a great variety of party packages they offer. Not only will guests enjoy the pool and slides, but also Arawa will provide a sampling of the food, music, either live or a DJ, decorations and entertainment they offer. During a press conference presided over by Sales Manager Ruth Gaarie, Lionel Dirksz, Party Coordinator explained all the fine services they have gathered together, and introduced their partners in fun, Eveline from Party Animals, Peter's Party Service and the music makers from Real.

The public will have an opportunity to experience what a party at Arawa will be from 5:00 to 8:00 PM during their expo. Party packages can range from as little as 225 florins total for a minimum party of fifteen guests and up, fitting any budget, and saving those planning festivities a lot of time and headaches.

So if you are concerned about how to make your next celebration special, check out the Arawa Party Expo on Thursday, September 21 or call them at telephone #588-1438, and you will see you can jump right in, they will make the planning easy, and the water is fine!
